Mayton of Talbot County and James Earle and William Furball of Queen Anne County to Sell of the Said Robert Smyth Esq late of Talbot County before his death Leaving to Richard Hale of Queen Anne County & Mary his wife the Daughter and heir of Renatus Smyth deceased the Surviving Executor of the Said Robert Smyth Deed wher the Said Renatus Smyth paid on Account of the Said Robert Smyth more than ~~He~~ to came to his hands and for the paym' of his Other Debts etc etc

Whereas the Said Renatus Smith in the Year of our Lord God Seventeen hundred and Sixteen petitioned the then Assembly setting forth that Whereas the Said Robert Smith Esq: Son or about the last of Jan anno Domini Seventeen hundred and Six Made his Last will and Testament in Writing and amongst other things therein contained Appointed his Debts to be paid and for payment thereof left One thousand acres of Land to be sold and appointed the Said Renatus - Smith and Anthony Joy Executors thereof (as appears by the Records of the Said - Will Remaining in the County Generally Office of this Province and shortly after dyed which Said Executors took upon them the burthen of the Administration of the Deceased Estate and the Execution of the Said Will and in pursuance thereof caused the Estate of the Said Deed to be Valued and appraised according to Law the total whereof as of the Inventory of remaining otherwise in the aforesd Office amounting to ~~the~~ One Thousand and Sixty Seven pounds Three Shillings and three pence which with the value of the Said Deed by the said to be sold as it was suggested to the Said Assembly he thought might had been sufficient to discharge his Debts But it was then represented by Renatus Smyth the surviving E. of the Other Esq being dead that the whole personal Estate of the Deed together with the purchase Money of the aforesaid Lands was not over sufficient to satisfy the Creditors of the Testator and that the Said Renatus in endeavouring to comply with the Testators will as to the paym' of his Debts had greatly impoverished his own Estate and likewise had past his own Obligations to severall persons to satisfye and pay them their respective summes against the Deed being due of whom sum as appeared by Bills Bonds and other Instruments for the paym' whereof he obliged as well his heirs Executors -
